South Africa: Community & Wildlife

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

Safari in Style

Explore two of South Africa's most vibrant cities – Cape Town and Johannesburg with unique South Africans who guide you into their neighborhoods, while sharing the fascinating history of their country.

In Cape Town, known locally as the “Mother City” explore the fascinating neighborhoods of Cape Flat Township, The Bo-Kaap, and The City Bowl. Walk the Company Gardens, a celebration of biodiversity and take a cable car up Table Mountain and view both the Indian Ocean to the East and the Atlantic to the west.

From Cape Town City venture into the wilds at Sabi Sand Reserve. Your stay at Duluni River Lodge is a wildlife immersion. From wild dogs racing the grasslands, to leopards lazing in trees, to elephants splashing and playing along the river, the enchantments seem endless.

The finale is historic Johannesburg, the economic capital of South Africa, the seat of African liberation, and quite possibly the birthplace of humanity. Bicycle Soweto Township, ground-zero in the struggle against apartheid. Pay homage in the homes of Nelson Mandela and Desmond Tutu two of the greatest liberators in history. Visit South Africa's Constitutional Court, once the notorious prison that jailed not only Nelson Mandela but also Mahatma Gandhi. Your final experience is the Malapa Archeological site just north of Johannesburg, discovery site of humanoid fossils almost 2 million years old.

Morning: Begin the day with a tour of Table Mountain to soak up the panoramic vistas of the Mother City and the surrounding oceans. Wander through the Company's Garden and visit the South African Museum, before venturing to the Castle of Good Hope. Built by the Dutch East India Company, between 1666 and 1679, as a maritime replenishment station, the Castle is the oldest surviving colonial building in the country.

During the tour through the city, you'll pass the Houses of Parliament, the Grand Parade and City Hall, where Nelson Mandela first addressed South Africans after his release from prison. You'll pass through lots of different neighborhoods and learn a lot about Capetonians. We'll drop you at the Victoria & Albert Waterfront. Pay cable car directly: 430 Rand per person, Fast Track Ticket: 995 Rand per person.

Lunch: We'll make suggestions for lunch restaurants at the Victoria & Albert Waterfront, pay direct.

Afternoon: Get yourself to the Bo-Kaap Museum by 2 in the afternoon, 71 Wale Street, to meet your Bo-Kaap guide for a walking tour of the Bo-Kaap neighborhood. (Ubers work great in Cape Town). The neighborhood is the oldest and most historic residential area in South Africa with origins dating back to the Dutch colonists who brought with them slaves from Indonesia, Malaysia, India, and Africa. It is this mix of cultures that results in the unique and incomparable Bo-Kaap culture, customs, and cuisines. The architecture is typical of that time with cobblestone streets and pastel-colored houses.

By joining the Bo-Kaap tour you are directly contributing to projects that impact and support impoverished communities, living on the periphery of the city centre.

DAY 3

Morning: The best part of travel is touching other people from different cultures and understanding that even though we are so different, we share many similarities. This morning you'll be with a Uthando community guide who will take you by vehicle into the Cape Flats township to visit three community development projects run by Uthando. The tours offer an introduction to the social problems confronting millions of South Africans, while showing us the innovative and inspirational ways the community handles their challenges. A third of the labor force in South Africa is unemployed in large part due to the failure of public schooling. The morning is meant to educate, inform and inspire, while also respecting the dignity and privacy of the people you are visiting.

Lunch: On your own, pay direct. We'll make suggestions for lunch restaurants.

Afternoon: This intriguing excursion begins at the Clock Tower at the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront. Depart by ferry to Robben Island which was a training and defense station in World War II. It is well known as a place of banishment, isolation, and imprisonment, becoming world famous as the prison Nelson Mandela was held for 18 years. Once you arrive on the island, you'll be met by a local South African guide who spent time here as a prisoner during the Apartheid years. He'll have a personal and moving account of his time as a prisoner. You can stand in the cell where Nelson Mandela spent a large part of his life.

Sabi Sands Reserve

Great wildlife and exceptional guiding are the hallmarks of Duluni, a sector of Sabi Sand Reserve with open borders into the Kruger National Park. The perennial Sand River runs through the reserve bringing lifesaving water to the Lowveld, as well as beautiful riverine landscapes. It is an area famous for the wide diversity of wildlife including the Big Five: lion, leopard, elephant, rhino and buffalo.

Lots of big cat sightings including leopard, plus an additional predator – wild dogs. Duluni guides are very familiar with the wildlife in the reserve and their interpretive skills are excellent. They track their lions and leopards on a daily basis, so sightings are frequent. These guys are superb. Plus the water and reed beds of the Sabi River are a major draw for birds, hippo, and the possibility for a sighting of the rare sitatunga semi-aquatic antelope. Land Cruisers limited to six travelers with a private guide and tracker.
